

SLOW FESTIVAL DRIVE IN

Slow Festival 2012 saw the introduction of one night of a movie shown drive-in style and it was a complete hit and sell-out. This year will mirror 2013 with 3 nights of drive-in bliss and 4 distinct movie genres; an animation movie night (Frozen), a family movie night (The Perfect Wave) and a double feature- oldie and action movie night (Grease and Now you see me).

“For most of us who remember them, the drive-in conjures up images of open air movies, picnics and popcorn, a family treat, Happy Days. The idea of the Slow Festival Drive In is to allow families some fun time and a movie experience with a difference.” said organiser Cornel Delafield.

The nights to diarise for this special trip to yesteryear are Thursday 17th, Friday 18th and Saturday 19th April. Tickets will be sold at the entrance to the Village green (in Sedgefield) on these evenings from 7pm. Just look for the big screen. Tickets are R30 per vehicle AND R5 per person in the vehicle.

The food stalls on the Village Green will stay open a little later, allowing you to stock up with delicious treats before the start of the movie too!
