

The Slow Festival OCM Awards

Sedgefield is a town with an amazing sense of community. For the last two years, the Sedgefield Slow Festival committee has strived to recognise the unsung heroes in our community through the Outstanding Community Member awards for both a lady and a gentleman.

“With both nominations and votes from and by Sedgefielders themselves, it is the privilege of each of us on the committee to honour these amazing men and women within the Sedgefield community” said Slow Fest committee member, Riana Hanekom. “We live in a special little town where people who have little themselves often give much to the many worthy causes around them.”

With its inception in 2014, the awards went to:

Debbie Olivier – for her outstanding work with the NSRI and Sedgefield Lions.

Bomber Webb – for his outstanding and absolutely committed service to the community.

Last year the awards went to:

Melanie Baumeister – for her outstanding work with the children of Sedgefield.

Mike Hofhuis – for his outstanding commitment to keep Sedgefield safe.

Please make your voice heard. If you know any of these great people, please send the name and contact details of your nominee, as well as a short motivation to merchandising@slowfestival.co.za or Whatsapp to 076 478 6214.

Cast your vote on Friday 25th and Saturday 26th March at the Slow Festival gazebo on the Village Green. The winners will be announced at the Prize giving ceremony on Sunday 27th March after the Street Parade.

239 Words